

Experiential itinerary through the Widespread Museum to Rocca di Angera

Written in the stars

Sunday, July 14, 2024, 09.30 am

By popular demand and on the occasion of the 10th anniversary of the "Il Lago Cromatico" Music Festival, we invite you to participate in a wonderful tour from downtown to the Belvedere of Rocca di Angera, to retrace the destinies of the eminent families whose names would be forever bound to Angera: Visconti, Sforza, and Borromeo. For those who wish, there is the possibility of entrance to the castle with a reduced-price ticket to admire, with a guide, the medieval frescoes of the Hall of Justice dedicated to the deeds of Ottone Visconti, archbishop, and Lord of Milan since 1277. Among the frescoed zodiac signs and astral references, you will discover a real epic "written in the stars."

Participation is free by reservation at: infopoint@comune.angera.it
